

This musical will have a concept. That's how every show should be directed. That ensures that there is a unique overall vision and that it's not a copy of something else or that it's not just random and gimmicky. This show's concept is Mexico's Day of the Dead or Dia De Los Muertos. If you don't know anything about this beautiful, sacred tradition. I encourage you to learn more. Here is a link on the history of Dia de los Muertos. <http://www.mexicansugarskull.com/support/dodhistory.html>

And here is a link that covers common misconceptions about the festival. <http://thinkmexican.tumblr.com/post/65868918029/facts-and-misconceptions-about-mexican-dia-de-los-muerto>

And here are a few more fun facts. https://www.buzzfeed.com/nestleabuelita/ways-el-dia-de-muertos-is-unlike-any-other-celebration?utm_term=.oj4gGA812#.nm7Jj4BOv