

Oak Canyon Freedom Week

November 6-10, 2017

We are excited to celebrate our freedoms and honor those that have given so much, and still do to this day, for us to enjoy those freedoms.

We have an awesome week planned for you. Check it out!

Essay Contest

We are excited for the theme of the essay contest this year: Thomas Jefferson said, "The price of freedom is eternal vigilance." How is this idea more applicable than ever today?

If you would like to enter this contest, please submit your essay based on the prompt above to the office no later than Monday, November 6th at 1:15 p.m.

These should be
2-3 pages, double spaced.

The winner will read his/her essay during the assembly. There will also be cash prizes for the top 3 essays.

1st place - $100
2nd place - $75
3rd place - $50

Assembly Pictures

We love to highlight and recognize our students' loved ones that have served, or are serving, as military or first responders in a video during the assembly. If you would like to add your pictures to this video please submit them in this way...

Send your picture(s) with the name of the student that person is related to and the relation. For example, this is John Smith, the grandfather to Jane Smith. Please submit these to twilky5@yahoo.com with "freedom week pictures" in the subject line.

Please submit by Monday, November 6th.

Calendar of Events
