

Mr. Johnson

I was born and raised in Orem. I attended Oak Canyon for Jr. High and had many of the teachers that are still at the school today. I went on an LDS mission to Rosario, Argentina and learned Spanish there. I married my wife, Lexie, in 2011 and we have two (soon to be three) kids. I love being a school counselor and working with the students of Oak Canyon.