

Mrs. Waugh

I was born and raised in Southern California in horse country (Norco). I moved to Utah when I graduated, met my husband and started my family. I have 4 kids, three of which are married. I have 3 grandkids with one on the way in December. I have always loved to cook which I think is what brought me to my current profession as the Nutrition Manager at Oak Canyon.